

Sideboard

Date

c. 1900

Primary Maker

Unknown American

Medium

mahogany with glass and metal

Description

Part of suite; backboard has central shield with elaborate hand-carved garlands and back-beveled mirror; rectangular shaped surface with ogee edge; apron has carved scroll designs along front and sides; two dove-tailed drawers on either side; lower section has two doors containing a single floating panel; central open space topped with bas relief of woman's head in profile and lattice work; metal hinges and gimlet screws are used throughout.

Dimensions

76 x 82 1/2 x 26 inches (193 x 209.6 x 66 cm)